If you thought “Rush” was the best motorsport movie of 2013, you were mistaken.

Introducing...

‘1’

Produced by Flat-Out Films and Spitfire Pictures, and narrated by Golden Globe nominated actor Michael Fassbender, “1” is a brilliantly written and presented documentary that brings the speed, glamour, danger and excitement of Formula One Grand Prix racing to the big screen.

The film tells the story of the golden age of Grand Prix racing, when the sport became terrifyingly dangerous and the drivers were like rock stars with charisma and raw talent, but with many of them paying the ultimate price. “1” follows the story of the drivers who raced on the edge and those who stood up to change the sport forever. Now arguably the best racing film ever...

“...now a small team have put together what might go down as the definitive documentary on Formula 1”.

Motorsport Magazine

Using rare archive footage, ‘1’ features the largest list of F1 interviewees ever assembled for a single film, among them 12 world champions. Contributors include Bernie Ecclestone, Max Mosley, Professor Sid Watkins, Jackie Stewart, Niki Lauda, John Surtees, Emerson Fittipaldi, Mario Andretti, Nigel Mansell, Jody Scheckter, Damon Hill, Michael Schumacher, Sebastian Vettel, Lewis Hamilton, Jenson Button, Jacky Ickx and Martin Brundle.
